1. Nature of Operations and Ability to Continue as a Going Concern

The Company is in the development stage and is devoting its efforts to developing real estate projects in the Middle East.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which assumes that the Company will be able to meet its obligations and continue its operations for its next fiscal year. Realization values may be substantially different from carrying values as shown and these financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary to the carrying values and classification of assets and liabilities should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. At June 30, 2009, the Company had not yet achieved profitable operations, has an accumulated deficit of $9,697,340 since its inception, has a working capital deficiency of $1,112,147 and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business, all of which casts substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. In addition to funding the Company's general, administrative and corporate expenses the Company is obligated to address its current obligations totalling $1,112,896. To the extent that cash needs are not achieved from operating cash flow and existing cash on hand, the Company will be required to raise necessary cash through shareholder loans, equity issuances and/or other debt financing. Amounts raised will be used to continue the development of the Company's investment activities, and for other working capital purposes.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to generate future profitable operations and/or to obtain the necessary financing to meet its obligations and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due. Management has no formal plan in place to address this concern but considers that the Company will be able to obtain additional funds by equity financing and/or related party advances; however there is no assurance of additional funding being available. The Company has historically satisfied its capital needs primarily by issuing equity securities. Management plans to continue to provide for its capital needs during the year ended December 31, 2009, by issuing equity securities.

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, all adjustments and disclosures necessary for a fair presentation of these financial statements have been included. Such adjustments consist of normal recurring adjustments. These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the annual audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, included in the Company's 10-K Annual Report as filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

The results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2009 are not indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

2. Deferred Investment Costs

Deferred investment costs consist of consultants' fees and payments to reimburse Star Leisure and Entertainment Inc. ("Star Leisure") with respect to the acquisition of Gulf Star World Development W.L.L ("Gulf Star"). By a letter of agreement dated July 11, 2002, the Company agreed to purchase 80% of the outstanding shares of Gulf Star, a Bahrain corporation, from Star Leisure. Star Leisure is controlled by a director of the Company. Gulf Star is the 100% owner and developer of the residential and tourist project known as the Dream Island Resort, located in Bahrain. In 2005, due to the uncertainty of the future viability of the Dream Island project, the Company wrote-down the associated deferred investment costs to a nominal value of $1.00. On May 20, 2009 the letter of agreement was terminated and the remaining related investment costs written-off.

4. Capital Stock – Notes 3 and 5

Capital Stock

On June 1, 2008, the Company issued 750,000 common shares to two consultants for consulting services to be provided over a twelve month period, valued at $52,000. The Company determined the fair value of the shares issued using the market price on the share issuance date. In September 2008 the Company terminated its agreement with one of the consultants and the remaining value of these shares was charged to operations. As a result as at June 30, 2009, $Nil (December 31, 2008 - $10,000) is remaining in prepaid expenses.

Class A Convertible Preferred Shares

The Class A convertible preferred shares issued in 2003 have a par value of $0.001 and are convertible to common shares at $4.00 per share during the first 180 days following issuance, and thereafter at the average of twenty consecutive days closing prices, but shall not be less than $1.50 per share or greater than $6.00 per share. The Company has the right to redeem its Class A convertible preferred stock at any time by paying to the holders thereof the sum of $4 per share.

The aggregate liquidation value of the Class A convertible preferred shares is $792,000. A merger or consolidation of the Company that results in the Company's stockholders immediately prior to the transaction not holding at least 50% of the voting power of the surviving entity shall be deemed a liquidation event.

Stock Option Plan

The Company's board of directors approved a stock option plan. Under the plan directors, employees and consultants may be granted options to purchase common stock of the Company at a price of not less than 100% of the fair market value of the stock. The total number of options granted must not exceed 15% of the outstanding common stock of the Company. The plan expires on July 1, 2017.

Stock-based Compensation

In previous periods, the Company granted share purchase options to directors, employees, and consultants of the Company at the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of the grants. The options have been granted with a term of 5 years.

The fair value of each option grant was estimated on the date of the grant using the Black-Scholes option valuation model. The Black-Scholes option valuation model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected price volatility. Changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and therefore the Black-Scholes model does not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company's share purchase options.

During the current period the Company did not grant any stock options to consultants, while during the period ended June 30, 2008 the Company granted stock options to consultants with a fair value of $215,128.

2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our unaudited interim financial statements and the related notes that appear elsewhere in this quarterly report. The following discussion contains forward-looking statements that reflect our plans, estimates and beliefs. Our actual results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include those discussed below and elsewhere in this annual report.

Our unaudited interim financial statements are stated in United States dollars and are prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

The Company is in the development stage, accordingly certain matters discussed herein are based on potential future circumstances and developments, which the Company anticipates, but which cannot be assured.

The Company has been devoting its business efforts to real estate development projects located in Bahrain and Turkey. Both these projects were terminated during April and May 2009. The Company will continue to explore new investment opportunities.

Dream Island Resort Project

The Dream Island Resort project is located in Manama, Bahrain. The Dream Island Resort project will be an integrated resort, entertainment, hotel and real estate facility to be built on a 41 acre man-made island off the north eastern coast of Manama, Bahrain.

The Company had an agreement to purchase 80% of the outstanding shares of Gulf Star World Development W.L.L. ("Gulf Star"), a Bahrain corporation, from Star Leisure & Entertainment Inc. ("Star Leisure"). Star Leisure is controlled by a director of the Company and is based in British Columbia, Canada. Gulf Star is the 100% owner and developer of the Dream Island Resort project.

On March 13, 2006, the Ministry of Finance, Bahrain ("MOFB") notified Gulf Star that due to a lack of progress and failure to advance the project in a timely basis, the MOFB intends to seek termination of the lease contract for the Dream Island site. The Company, Gulf Star, and Star Leisure intend to oppose the action by the MOFB. However, due to the uncertainty of the future viability of the Dream Island project, management has written-down the associated deferred development costs to a nominal value of $1.00 at December 31, 2005.

In May 2009, the Company and Star Leisure mutually agreed to terminate the agreement to purchase the Gulf Star shares, and the remaining balance of this investment was written-off.

Port Residence Project

In January 7, 2008, the Company entered into a Letter of Intent to potentially acquire by option up to a 100% indirect interest in the Port Residence Project by purchasing the outstanding shares of a Turkish company. The Port Residence Project is a real estate development project that will be located on a 16.5 hectare parcel of land in Calkaya, near Antalya, Turkey.

In April 2009, the Company unilaterally withdrew from the Letter of Intent.

Plan of Operation

The Company had been devoting its business efforts to real estate development projects located in Bahrain and Turkey. During April and May 2009, the Company terminated its involvement in these projects. The Company plans to investigate new real estate development projects during its 2009 fiscal year.

Our estimated cash expenses over the next twelve months are as follows:

Accounting , audit, and legal fees	$ 60,000
Consulting and management fees	10,000
Interest	20,000
General and administrative expenses	3,000
Regulatory and transfer agent fees	7,000
	$ 100,000

To date we have funded our operations primarily with loans from shareholders and issue new equity. In addition to funding the Company's general, administrative and corporate expenses the Company is obligated to address its current obligations totalling $1,112,896. To the extent that cash needs are not achieved from operating cash flow and existing cash on hand, the Company will be required to raise necessary cash through shareholder loans, equity issuances and/or other debt financing. Amounts raised will be used to continue the development of the Company's investment activities, and for other working capital purposes, which may be dilutive to existing shareholders. The company currently has no agreement in place to raise funds for current liabilities and no guarantee can be given that we will be able to raise funds for this purpose on terms acceptable to the company. Failure to raise funds for general, administrative and corporate expenses and current liabilities could result in a severe curtailment of the company operations.

Results of Operations

During the quarter ended June 30, 2009, the Company incurred general and administrative expenses totaling $52,053 compared to $341,022 during the same period of the previous year.

The changes in our general and administrative expenses for the six month period ended June 30, 2009 when compared to the six month period ended June 30, 2008 was primarily due to:

- a) The increase in accounting, audit, and legal fees was due to a general increase in the fees charged by the consultants and professionals who provide these services. In addition, there has been an increase in the amount of time spent by these consultants and professionals to ensure the Company is in compliance with the increased reporting requirement imposed by regulatory authorities.
- b) Consulting fees expense includes the fair value of stock options granted to consultants as part of their remuneration. During the current period the Company did not grant any stock options to consultants, while during the period ended June 30, 2008 the Company granted stock options to consultants with a fair value of $215,128. In addition, the June 30, 2008 consulting fees expense included the issuance of shares for consulting services, while no new consulting agreements were entered into during the current period.
- c) Management fees declined by $92,250 during the current period as a result of a director resigning his position as CEO in September 2008, and the resulting termination of his management contract fees at that time. And the termination of the other remaining management contract as of December 31, 2008.
- d) Interest on loans increased by $4,600, this is attributed to the principal balance on its loans increasing compared to the comparative 2008 period. During the comparative 2008 period the Company recognized $11,160 as the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature of convertible loans and this amount was included in interest expense. There were no beneficial conversion feature charges during the 2009 period, resulting in a net decrease in interest expense of $6,560.
- e) Regulatory and transfer agent fees increased by $5,551. During the three month period ended March 31, 2008 the Company recorded a $2,000 reversal of an over-accrued liability recorded in prior years, relating to transfer agent fees. And as of September 2008, the Company is now required to make public disclosure filings with Canadian regulators, as well as filing in the USA. This has increased the regulatory fees expense.
- f) Rent decreased because the Company terminated its Vancouver office facilities concurrent with the resignation of the former CEO in September 2008.

Funding for operating and investing activities was provided by both non-interest and interest bearing advances and loans from related parties, including directors of the Company, and companies controlled by these directors.

As of June 30, 2009, the Company had total current assets of $749 and total liabilities of $1,112,896. As of June 30, 2009, the Company had cash of $749 and a working capital deficiency of $1,112,147 as of June 30, 2009 compared to cash on hand of $256 and a working capital deficiency of $1,020,299 for the year ended December 31, 2008. We anticipate that we will incur approximately $100,000 for operating expenses, including professional, legal and accounting expenses associated with our reporting requirements under the Exchange Act during the next twelve months. In addition to funding the Company's general, administrative and corporate expenses the Company is obligated to address its current obligations totaling $1,112,896. To the extent that cash needs are not achieved from operating cash flow and existing cash on hand, the Company will be required to raise necessary cash through shareholder loans, equity issuances and/or other debt financing. Amounts raised will be used to continue the development of the Company's investment activities, and for other working capital purposes. Accordingly, we will need to obtain additional financing in order to continue our planned business activities.

Cash used in operating activities for the six month period ended June 30, 2009 was $46,484 as compared to cash used by operating activities for the same period in 2008 of $45,983. The cash used in operating activities is consistent with the same period in the previous year.

The Company has the following loans outstanding as of June 30, 2009:

A $11,230 loan payable to a company controlled by a director of the Company including accrued interest of $4,428 (December 31, 2008 - $3,789). The loan is unsecured, bearing interest at 12% per annum and is repayable on demand.

$70,394 in loans payable to companies controlled by directors of the Company are unsecured, non-interest bearing, and repayable upon demand.

A $190,686 loan payable to a company controlled by a director of the Company, including accrued interest payable of $26,920 (December 31, 2008 - $17,804), pursuant to a Convertible Loan Agreement. The loan is unsecured, bearing interest at 10% per annum and is repayable on demand. The lender may at anytime convert the principal sum into units of the Company. Each unit will consist of one common share plus one common share purchase warrant. The principal sum of $163,766 may be converted into 2,320,858 units. Conversion of these loans and resulting associated warrants to equity will be based on the conversion price set at the time the principal amount was drawn ranging from $0.05 to $0.23. During the six month period ended June 30, 2009 an amount of $Nil (2008 - $11,161) was recognized as the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature of these loans and this amount was included in interest expense. Upon conversion of this loan, the fair value of the warrants $73,685 would be recognized as an interest expense and credited to additional paid-in capital.

A $291,180 loan payable to a company controlled by a director of the Company, including accrued interest of $35,971 (December 31, 2008 - $22,052), pursuant to a Convertible Loan Agreement. The loan is unsecured, bearing interest at 10% per annum and is repayable on demand. The lender may at anytime convert the principal sum into units of the Company. Each unit will consist of one common share plus one common share purchase warrant. The principal sum of $255,209 may be converted into 4,526,436 units. Conversion of this loan and resulting associated warrants to equity will be based on the conversion price set at the time the principal amount was drawn ranging from $0.05 to $0.12. During the three month period ended June 30, 2009 an amount of $Nil (2008 - $Nil) was recognized as the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature of these loans and this amount was included in interest expense. Upon conversion of this loan, the fair value of the warrants $113,338 would be recognized as an interest expense and credited to additional paid-in capital.

Going Concern

The unaudited financial statements accompanying this report have been prepared on a going concern basis, which implies that our company will continue to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. Our company has not generated revenues since inception and has never paid any cash dividends and is unlikely to pay cash dividends or generate earnings in the immediate or foreseeable future. The continuation of our company as a going concern is dependent upon the continued financial support from our shareholders, the ability of our company to obtain necessary equity financing to achieve our operating objectives, and the attainment of profitable operations. As of June 30, 2009, we had cash of $749 and we estimate that we will require approximately $100,000 to fund our business operations over the next twelve months. In addition to funding the Company's general, administrative and corporate expenses the Company is obligated to address its current obligations totaling $1,112,896. To the extent that cash needs are not achieved from operating cash flow and existing cash on hand, the Company will be required to raise necessary cash through shareholder loans, equity issuances and/or other debt financing. Amounts raised will be used to continue the development of the Company's investment activities, and for other working capital purposes.

Accordingly, we do not have sufficient funds for planned operations and we will be required to raise additional funds for operations after that date.

These circumstances raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern, as described in the Note 1 of our June 30, 2009 unaudited financial statements. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of that uncertainty. The continuation of our business is dependent upon us raising additional financial support. The issuance of additional equity securities by us could result in a significant dilution in the equity interests of our current stockholders. Obtaining commercial loans, assuming those loans would be available, will increase our liabilities and future cash commitments.

There are no assurances that we will be able to obtain further funds required for our continued operations. We are pursuing various financing alternatives to meet our immediate and long-term financial requirements. There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available to us when needed or, if available, that it can be obtained on commercially reasonable terms. If we are not able to obtain the additional financing on a timely basis, we will be forced to scale down or perhaps even cease the operation of our business.

Future Financings

As of June 30, 2009, we had cash of $749 and we estimate that we will require approximately $100,000 to fund our business operations over the next twelve months. In addition to funding the Company's general, administrative and corporate expenses the Company is obligated to address its current obligations totaling $1,112,896. Accordingly, we do not have sufficient funds for planned operations and we will be required to raise additional funds for operations after that date. We anticipate continuing to rely on equity sales of our common shares or shareholder loans in order to continue to fund our business operations. Issuances of additional shares will result in dilution to our existing stockholders. There is no assurance that we will achieve any additional sales of our equity securities or arrange for debt or other financing to fund our planned activities.

Off-balance sheet arrangements

As of the date of this Report, the Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on the company's financial condition, change in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that are material to investors. The term "off-balance sheet arrangement" generally means any transaction, agreement, or other contractual arrangement to which an entity unconsolidated with the Company is a party under which the Company has (i) any obligation arising under a guarantee contract, derivative instrument or variable interest; or (ii) a retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to such entity or similar arrangement that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support for such assets.

3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company has no market risk sensitive instruments.

4. Controls and Procedures

In connection with the restatement of our financial results for the year ended December 31, 2007, under the direction of our management, we have re-evaluated certain disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls over financial reporting. In connection with the restatement we identified a material weakness in our internal controls and procedures relating to the accounting treatment of our past acquisitions, stock-based compensation calculations, settlement of debts and the determination of impairment.

As required by Rule 13(a)-15 under the Exchange Act, in connection with this quarterly report on Form 10-Q, under the direction of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, we have evaluated our disclosure controls and procedures as of June 30, 2009, our disclosure controls and procedures were ineffective as discussed in greater detail above. As of the date of this filing, we are still in the process of remediating such material weaknesses in our internal controls and procedures. Additionally, we are currently inactive as we seek new business opportunities.

It should be noted that while our management believes our disclosure controls and procedures provide a reasonable level of assurance, they do not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or internal controls will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived or operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within our company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override of the controls. The design of any system of internal control is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Over time, controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the three month period ended June 30, 2009 that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
